CHANGES WANTED:
 Thornford Gardens
 Action Group protesting at the former Ecko site
 Picture by MARK CLEVELAND

Don't make our homes traffic hell!

AN action group has been set up to fight plans which could mean traffic from hundreds of homes going into a quiet road.

Residents in Thornford Gardens and Priory Crescent, Southend, are angry about the £16.5 million plan for two-storey office blocks, 200 homes and a hospice proposed for the former Ecko site.

Bellway Homes, developer of the site, has said to residents there will be only a small increase in traffic. The developer has said the development will actually reduce traffic in Priory Crescent, where drivers will turn into the proposed hospice site and the new Marston's pub – compared to when the Prittlebrook Industrial Estate was open.

But the protesters are worried that the development will cause congestion in the quiet road of Thornford Gardens and at the exit with Manners Way.

The group's founding member Margaret Smith said she had moved there a year ago to escape congestion in Eastern Avenue.

She said: "We are not against the hospice we understand Havens need a new premises. "What we are against is the increase in traffic – there are two options going forward and one of them will increase traffic into our road and into Manners Way as well."

She continued: "We have been and spoken to the new administration of the council and are now waiting for the finalised plans to be put forward so we can see exactly what Bellway want to do.

"It doesn't make sense to have office blocks on the site when there are ones in Victoria Avenue that can deal with the traffic. There's not enough infrastructure around to support the traffic increase."

Competition

WIN! TICKETS TO THE BIGGEST COMBINED HOMEBUILDING AND HOME IMPROVEMENT EVENT

FOR the first time this year, Britain's largest homebuilding, renovating and home improvement shows are joining forces to attract both self-builders and remodelers. The inaugural Southern Homebuilding & Renovating and Home Improvement Show will take place in Surrey at Sandown Park on June 28 and 29 to cater for all projects, tastes and budgets.

This year's event will host more than 150 exclusive exhibitors, free seminars and masterclasses, and a wide range of property experts will be on call to provide tips, advice and answers to visitors' property questions.

For information on the crucial aspects of homebuilding and improvement including design, self-build, extensions, remodeling, landscaping, finance, budgeting and legal issues, visitors can attend the free daily seminars and masterclasses hosted by professional companies and key celebrity experts.

The Advice Centre is open to discuss project plans and find solutions to any issues by visiting the live theatre demonstrations. To learn how to hang a shelf or frame a painting, the tricks of the trade presentations are hosted by DIY Doctor Mike Edwards, who will show consumers how to tackle these tasks with confidence and ease.

For specialist help, homeowners can talk directly and individually with 2014's show panel that includes: Michael Holmes (editor-in-chief, Homebuilding & Renovating magazine), Jason Orme (editor of Homebuilding & Renovating magazine and self-build expert) and a lots more.

Standard tickets are £8 in advance or £12 on the door (children under 16 go free). For further information about the event, which runs from 10am to 5pm on Saturday, and from 10am to 4.30pm on Sunday, visit <http://surrey.homebuildingshow.co.uk> or call the ticket hotline on 0871 2301086.

To win one of 20 pairs of tickets to the show just answer the following question.

Q: How many exhibitors will be at the event?

A: More than 50

B: More than 100

C: More than 150

To enter the competition telephone your answer - A, B or C - to 0901 307 0204 along with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Alternatively text YABUILD (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333.

Calls cost 51p from a BT landline. Calls from other networks may vary and from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates. If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, please text EXIT at the end of your message.

Waste not, want not

RECYCLE: Miranda Valenzuela, waste and recycling officer with resident Helen Conway

Picture by Mark Cleveland

RESIDENTS are being challenged to recycle everything possible next week as part of National Recycle Week.

The special zero waste bid is being organised by Southend Council and Cory Environmental, to inspire people to think about their black sack waste and to do all they can to reduce it.

If people sign up to the scheme they will receive a special free information pack with hints and tips about how to help cut down waste.

The council's team leader for waste management, Imran Kazalbash, said lots of people recycle diligently every week.

He said: "However this challenge asks residents to think about the waste they are producing, so they start to make choices which mean they don't need to dispose of anything in their black sacks.

"This means, for instance, picking items with recyclable packaging, such as plastic or cardboard trays rather than polystyrene.

"Even if people don't achieve zero waste, we're urging people to see how much they can slim their waste down by just one week.

"There are so many opportunities for recycling all kinds of waste there are pink recycling sacks for dry recyclables, blue bins for food waste, clear sacks for textiles and various recycling containers at Southend's two household waste recycling centres.

"If we all recycled everything we could, there would be very little black sack waste being sent to landfill and if people really watch what they buy and make an extra special effort they may even be able to recycle everything."

For more information about zero waste week visit www.southend.gov.uk/zerowasteweek or contact Cory Environmental on 01702 617766.

Man threatened shopkeeper with gun

POLICE are hunting a gun man after he tried to rob a shop.

At 2.15pm on Sunday, June 8, a man entered Colliers newsagents in Hamlet Court Road.

He was wearing a grey Adidas tracksuit and a grey Halloween style wolf mask.

He is described as aged between 17 and 21 years old, had a local accent, was 5ft 6ins tall and of a skinny build.

The shopkeeper has told officers the suspect pointed a black handgun at him as he stood behind the counter and demanded he open the till and give him the money.

The shop owner refused to hand over anything and following a brief confrontation the suspect left the shop empty handed.

He ran out of the shop and headed towards the seafront and was seen running down Anerley Road then into Ceylon Road car park and out onto Ceylon Road.

Anyone who can help police should contact Dc Vicky Caine on 101.

Plane crash

A LIGHT aircraft crashed at Southend Airport on Monday, June 2, at 11.46am.

One person was onboard but suffered no injuries.

The aircraft was made safe by fire crews at 12.06pm.

Southend station commander, Martyn Hodder, said the plane had a heavy landing and bounced onto the runway before landing on the grass.

He said: "The pilot evacuated once the plane hit the ground and walked away from the crash."

Car Keyed

A WOMAN who was involved in a minor road dispute later found her car had been keyed.

The incident which is being investigated by police as criminal damage, happened at Southend Hospital on Sunday, May 18.

The car driver was entering the Cardigan Wing car park when she almost had a collision with a pedestrian.

They exchanged words and the woman then went into the hospital.

When she came out a short while later she found every panel of her Subaru Impreza keyed.

Information to 101.

Information day

CARERS in Southend are being invited to a special information day this Thursday.

This free event from 10am until 4pm at Clarence Road Baptist Church, Southend, is a way to find out about all practical and emotional help available to carers.

The event called "Come Together - Care Together" has been organised by Southend Carers' Forum, and is a chance to talk face to face with service providers and meet other carers over a cup of coffee.

For more details about the "Come Together - Care Together" information day and other events taking place during Carers Week, visit www.southendcarers.co.uk, email info@southendcarers.co.uk or call 01702 393933.

Baby poisoned by infected drip feed

country – one at Basildon Hospital – who have contracted septicaemia, resulting in one death.

Sue Hardy, chief nurse, said Southend Hospital had received one batch of the intravenous fluid which is currently being investigated. She said: “The feed had been prescribed for a baby in our care, who subsequently developed the symptoms of Bacillus cereus septicaemia and is being treated with antibiotics.

The parents have been informed and are receiving our full support. “We are currently working with Public Health England as part of their investigation into the source of the contamination.”

The baby is responding well to treatment.

The Medicines and Healthcare products Regulatory Agency (MHRA) has confirmed it is investigating ITH Pharma Limited, the company that produced the fluid.

Gerald Heddell, MHRA’s director of inspection, enforcements and standards, said the facility where the liquid came from had been inspected.

He said: “At this stage, we believe the facility is operating in accordance with Good Manufacturing Practice guidelines. Inspections will be made as part of our ongoing investigation.”

Karen Hamling, managing director of ITH Pharma Limited, said from investigations it would appear the potential contamination is linked to a single material ingredient. She said: “As a mother, as a pharmacist, as someone who has worked 30 years in healthcare, inside and outside the NHS, I am deeply saddened that one baby has died and others have fallen ill from septicaemia.”

A second baby at Basildon Hospital is being ‘monitored closely’ after showing clinical symptoms of infection. The hospital confirmed the baby had received the potentially contaminated ‘parenteral nutrition’ – an intravenous liquid which has been linked to several cases of ‘Bacillus cereus’ blood poisoning.

Government body Public Health England has linked a potentially contaminated batch of the solution, given to babies who have trouble ingesting food via their mouth, to more than 15 cases of the poisoning. It was recalled by manufacturer ITH Pharma Limited on Tuesday, June 3.

Public Health England confirmed a potential case had been identified at Basildon Hospital, with a baby showing ‘clinical symptoms’.

A Basildon Hospital spokesperson said: “One baby at Basildon Hospital received the potentially affected food. So far tests have not shown any signs of infection; however, we are monitoring the baby closely.

“As soon as we were notified of the situation we took all appropriate steps to ensure our patients’ safety. The parents of babies currently in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit are fully informed.”

Mirror box research trial to help victims of stroke

LOOKING INTO IT: Aarti Sharma and Joanne Lay with a mirror box

STAFF at Southend Hospital have launched a pioneering research trial aimed at helping people paralysed by strokes.

A £10,000 grant from the Department of Health has helped the rehab team study the effects of mirror imaging on patients where one arm is completely paralysed as a result of a stroke. Patients taking part in the trial will be get daily therapy using a mirror box, which encourages their paralysed arm to mimic the movement in their healthy arm.

Joanne Lay, clinical inpatient rehabilitation lead, said mirror imaging as therapy had been used extensively with amputees but no-one had explored its potential in helping stroke patients regain movement.

She said: “It is a simple therapy but if it works for our patients it could really have a dramatic impact of their level of recovery.

“This is very exciting and could ultimately benefit patients nationwide.”

The system works by inserting the impaired arm into a hole in the box while viewing the working arm on an external mirror. When the working arm is moved the brain is tricked into thinking it is the paralysed arm and helps it rebuild connections in the brain.

The trial will test two groups of patients over a six week period. At the beginning, after three weeks and at the end of the treatment the participants will undergo tests, including an MRI scan – to see how the brain has reacted – and then again after three weeks of inactivity.

Joanne and colleague Aarti Sharma, a senior physiotherapist, will work with patients who agree to be part of the trial on the hospital’s award-winning stroke unit.

Patients will be encouraged to a minimum of 15 minutes with the box, three times a day.

Joanne said: “The great thing about this therapy is that it is non-invasive and entirely led by the patient. For those who have suffered complete paralysis in one arm there is very little we can currently do.

“We hope this research will change that.”

Leigh Art Trail launched

THE LEIGH Art Trail was officially launched last Friday.

The trail sees a massive selection of work being put up in shops, cafes and bars around the seaside town.

In total there is a selection of 35 artists who are exhibiting their work in Leigh.

Events have so far included a graffiti workshop at the skate park near the train station and a handful of open exhibitions.

Amy Mountney, one of the organisers of the art trail, said the launch weekend had pulled crowds into the area.

She said: "It has been brilliant so far, it has been very busy.

"Even though it rained when we were doing a spray paint workshop at the skate park it soon dried up and we could carry on working.

"It is a very different art trail to others that I have been involved in.

"Lots of the artists have been making sales as well which is great for them.

"I sold some work to a couple that had travelled up from South London.

"As an artist I am really impressed with the way things are going and the amount of interest it has created around the town."

On Friday there was also an awards ceremony in the Leigh Road Baptist Church, for children between the ages of three and 18 from schools in the area.

Children had produced work for a special exhibition and were given certificates for their artistic efforts.

The art trail will continue until Saturday, June 14.

Runner dies after half marathon finish

A MAN who took part in the Southend Half Marathon died at the end of the race.

The runner in his 30s was taken to a medical tent to be given treatment before he died.

A spokesman for Havens Hospice, the charity which the race was raising money for, said it was 'with immense sadness that a runner who took part in the Southend Half Marathon has died.

He said: "The male runner collapsed at the finish line and treatment was given immediately by the on-site medic team, then transferred to the medical tent where he was treated by a senior doctor, but he sadly died a short while afterwards.

"His next of kin have been informed.

"Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends at this incredibly sad time."

Race organisers advised people at the start to keep hydrated by taking water from stations that were around the course.

Southend Community Event

"Essex Action" as heard on Southend Radio, produced in conjunction with the Volunteer Centre Southend (SAVS)

The Southend Community Event is being held in Priory Park, Southend, on Wednesday August 6.

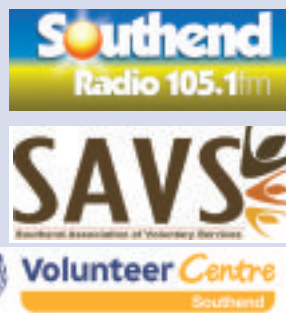

Celebrating Southend's diversity, culture and heritage, the event brings people together to enjoy live music, dance, British and ethnic foods and children's activities and you can be a part of it.

Volunteers are needed to talk to members of the public about how they have enjoyed themselves at the event, so if you are friendly, and outgoing then why not join us for a great day out and volunteer.

There is an information evening on June 23. Contact Emily on 01702 356060 at the volunteer centre in southend for details.

Volunteers rewarded for hard work

VOLUNTEERS at the Southend Association of Voluntary Services (SAVS) were rewarded for their hard work last Wednesday.

As part of a national event to celebrate volunteers the doors of the mayor's residence was opened for the group.

SAVS hosted the volunteer tea party to say a big thank you to 65 volunteers who continue to support the charity in a variety of different projects.

Man's jaw broken in attack

A MAN had to have a plate inserted into his jaw after it was broken when he was assaulted near the White Horse Pub in Southchurch.

There had been a disturbance between three men and another group at the pub as people were leaving in the early hours of Saturday, May 24.

Just after midnight two men were walking home towards Southend, along Southchurch Road, when one of them was punched from behind in the head and knocked to the ground.

The men who attacked the pair were the same men in the disturbance at the White Horse Pub earlier.

They are described as white aged in their mid 20s and of slim build.

One was about 5ft 7ins tall with dark short hair, he was wearing blue jeans and a jumper with three buttons on it

Another was of slim build, with light short hair, he was wearing an Adidas zip up top.

The third had dark hair, wearing a jumper and jeans.

Police believe these men may be known by regulars at the pub and urge anyone who knows who they are to contact them.

Anyone with information should contact Southend CID on 101 or call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

COPPICE: The communications team from UK Power Networks get to grips with coppicing trees.

Volunteers improve woodland access

VOLUNTEERS have been clearing a piece of woodland in Belfairs Park, Leigh.

Despite wet weather, volunteers from UK Power Networks coppiced trees and brambles to improve access to the site and improved habitats for wildlife.

Media relations manager Tracey Elsey said it had been satisfying to see the difference after just a couple of hours.

She said: "We cleared both sides of a pathway to allow more light through to help the wildlife and improve access."

"We were also able to return to a different area of Belfairs Park where we did some coppicing last year and saw wildlife thrive there."

Ashley Pinnock, woodland ranger for Essex Wildlife Trust, which works in partnership with Southend Council to maintain the area said it was great to see the volunteers' hard work.

Ashley said: "The park is home to some rare species, including health fritillary butterflies, so it is vital to regularly coppice areas around the park to ensure mammals, insects and the plant life can thrive."

Efit released following attempted burglary

DETECTIVES in Southend have issued an efit of a man they want to identify in connection with an attempted burglary in Seaforth Road, Westcliff, on Friday, May 23.

The suspect attempted to enter a flat in the early hours, around 1.20am via French doors but his actions disturbed the home owners who spotted him as he ran off.

He is described as white, average height, with light brown hair and wearing a light t-shirt and blue jeans.

Anyone who thinks they may recognise the man is urged to contact investigating officer De Jon Holden at Southend CID on 101 or via Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Schoolchildren get hands on with first aid skills at hospital

CHILDREN from St Michael's School in Leigh took part in a basic life support workshop at Southend Hospital.

The 40 year five pupils learnt essential life support skills on Resus Annies.

Consultant cardiologist, Dr

Thuraia Nageh, led the session and was joined by cardiac consultant physiologists, Chloe Battle and Zoe Heath.

Dr Nageh, who has two children at the school, said it was a pleasure to run this workshop.

Dr Nageh said: "I was very impressed by the pupils' enthusiasm and exceptional understanding of the skills required to perform effective life support.

"Basic CPR can and does save lives and one or more of these children may need to use it to do just that in the future."

RESUS: Children learning resuscitation skills.

Coalition ousts the Tories

A NEW joint administration of independents, Labour and the Lib-Dems will run Southend Council.

Appointments were agreed at a full council meeting on Thursday (June 5), following the local elections on May 22.

An agreement has been reached between the Independent group, the Labour group and Liberal Democrats group allowing them to take over the running of the council from the Conservatives.

The Conservatives won 19 wards in the election (down seven), the Lib-Dems five (down four), Labour nine (up three) and independents 12 (up three).

Councillor Ron Woodley (Ind), has been appointed as the new leader of the council. He has selected Labour group leader Ian Gilbert and Lib-Dem group leader Graham Longley as deputies.

Cllr Martin Terry remains the Independent group spokesperson and will take a place on the cabinet alongside Cllr Mike Assenheimer, Cllr David Norman and Cllr Ann Jones.

Cllr Woodley said:

"I am honoured to take on the role and look forward to working together with all councillors and local people for the good of this great town."

Cllr Gilbert said the cabinet was strong. "I am confident we can deliver the positive change that people want to see."

Cllr Terry, member for public protection, waste and transport, said there would be challenges ahead for the new administration. "These are challenges we will face openly, sensibly and collaboratively as a joint administration."

Opinion and readers' letters

How will alliance work?

With the admission by county Cllr Huntman, that an alliance between Canvey Independent Party exists, and this alliance being substantiated by UKIP not proposing to put up a candidate in the imminent Canvey East by-election, makes Cllr Blackwell's assertion that no such alliance exists or existed, to be at decided variance to the actuality.

It is difficult to understand how an alliance between a national party can be embraced by a well meaning local single issue party, without the local party being devoured by the larger national party.

Brian Wilson
Benfleet

Plan was always an abysmal idea

THE multi-headed proposal to demolish the purpose-built Longwood Equestrian Centre at Dry Street and the existing Basildon College, build on the Dry Street Pastures Local Wildlife Site, relocate Basildon Market and build a much more cramped college on the original well-planned market site always was an abysmal idea.

It still is, despite all the desperate moves to force the necessary planning permissions through, before the local elections which, predictably, saw the trouncing of the council administration responsible for such misguided thinking.

We do not have to be stuck with this lamentable inheritance. It is to be hoped that the legal challenge to part of the proposal will prove successful. Meanwhile, all who have been thoroughly offended by this grim proposal now have the chance to encourage the new administration in the Bas Centre to repudiate the whole scheme, bag and baggage, inviting its proposers to think again.

It is difficult to understand how South Essex College was ever able to convince its staff and students that abandoning its delightful countryside location in favour of a site where only twenty cars can be parked was ever an idea worth considering.

Rod Cole Basildon

Increase in tax for the rich is our only hope

A HEADLINE shown on Press Preview stated that Private Finance Initiatives (PFI's) had cost taxpayers millions of pounds and the announcer made the point that PFI's were established by the Labour government.

That is so but no mention was made to justify the reason. The Thatcher government, in its need to reduce the personal tax rate of 60p to 40p, not only sold off nationally owned industries, many now in foreign ownership, but also sold off school playing fields in addition to neglecting the maintenance of schools and hospitals.

Anyone old enough will remember the stories of leaking roofs, failing heating systems and general neglect.

Unfortunately Labour, under Blair, did not reverse the situation by restoring previous tax levels but, in Tory-like fashion, favoured the financiers, in an endeavour to provide the schools and hospitals, fit for purpose, that we now have.

I do not doubt that the only hope of sorting out the nation's finances will be through increased taxation for top earners and recipients of unearned income.

Cameron will not do it so I hope that Miliband has the nerve.

Les Harrington,
Benfleet

Civilised people lead by example

I WAS astounded to see the letter from Mr Nicholson advocating that criminals should be stoned. Civilised people lead by example, and our society has no place for such a barbaric custom.

In medieval times, people were cruelly punished – by hanging, drawing and quartering, by being burned alive, or by being broken on the wheel (the victim's limbs were smashed with a sledgehammer, braided through the spokes of a wheel, and the body hoisted on a pole for birds to peck at while the victim slowly died). People enjoyed watching the victims writhe and scream.

But all that cruelty didn't make for a more law-abiding society – in the reign of Henry VIII there was so much crime in London the authorities found it necessary to carry out ten public executions a week.

With the end of torture executions and other cruel punishments (flogging sailors almost to death, for example), society has become kinder, and that's something to celebrate. Crime hasn't been abolished, but reverting to medieval cruelties is not the answer.

Jean Elliott
Upminster

Who can have faith in scrutiny process?

WHAT message is the Essex County Council leader Cllr.

Finch sending by his sacking of the People and Families Scrutiny Committee chairman Cllr Graham Butland?

Cllr Butland and his committee members performed their scrutiny function re the proposed closure of Deanes School with the highest integrity and the resulting decision to advise against closure was unanimous. The price for this brave stand against the big bully boys of the county cabinet? Effective dismissal from the post. Graham and his team were to many of us, the only redeeming feature of this damaging farce of Tory fiefdom. Who can now have faith in the county scrutiny process when its findings are ignored and its chairman sacked for doing his job?

I hope on this issue MP Rebecca Harris and I can continue to work together to make Cllr Finch and his cabinet toadies answerable for the damage they are doing to our children, families and our community. This should be exposed at the highest level.

The people are the final decision makers.

Joe Cooke Thundersley

Join campaign to fight cancer

SINCE we launched Men United v Prostate Cancer in January, nearly 200,000 people have signed up to fight the disease that claims 10,000 lives each year in the UK.

As a dad myself, I hope it hasn't escaped your notice that Men's Health Week and Father's Day are upon us. What better time to ask in all seriousness, "How's your father?" and to remember that prostate cancer is a disease that kills not just dads but also brothers, granddads, sons, uncles and nephews. That's why we formed Men United and that's why we're asking more people to join this Father's Day.

By backing Prostate Cancer UK's research into which of us are more at risk from the disease that kills one bloke every hour, Men United members can help revolutionise the future for every mother's son.

So go on, be part of it. Sign for Men United this Father's Day to celebrate all our Dads, whether they are still here with us or have gone before.

Bathroom of your dreams from Image

RELAX in the bathroom of your dreams with the help of a long established local company.

Image Bathrooms knows only too well how a quality bathroom can make all the difference in your home, whether you are looking for a replacement suite or a complete redesign.

But the Basildon based company also knows that making sure all the work is carried out to the highest of standards is equally important, to ensure you get the finish you deserve.

A bathroom of your dreams could easily turn into a nightmare if it is not installed properly, so it is vital to make sure that all the work, including electrical and plumbing work, is carried out to the required standard.

Image Bathrooms, which has more than 20 years experience in the industry, offers a complete service with all the finishing touches, including electrical, plumbing, carpentry and tiling, so you don't have to get a range of different quotes from different companies and professionals to get the job done. What's more, the company can also help with the design of your bathroom, ensuring you get the most out of your space, whether you are looking for something traditional or much more modern.

With free, no obligation quotes available and a fitting service if you already have a suite to be installed, Image Bathrooms really does offer a one-stop service for all your bathroom needs.

What's more, all of its work is fully insured and guaranteed, giving you reassurance that your new bathroom will stand the test of time, and cater for all your family's needs.

Customer testimonials include those of Val from Basildon who says she "would definitely recommend to family and friends", and Jan from Lee Chapel South who said: "Good, reliable, trustworthy company. Highly recommended."

For further information about Image Bathrooms, who know the importance of getting it right the first time, call 01268 548821 or 07762 513261.

Essex Showers can make your dreams reality

A WARM attractive bathroom not only adds comfort to your home, but value. Essex Showers has more than 20 years' experience in creating individually designed dream bathrooms at affordable prices.

With more than 5,000 installations for satisfied customers across the county, the company's reputation has spread far and wide.

The company was formed in 1982, when Malcolm and Lee Pitt decided the time had come to make use of their 26 years' combined experience at a national bathroom company. Their continued success is due to high-quality bathrooms at value-for-money prices, and a full expert installation service. The company installs only top brand name bathroom suites from companies such as Armitage Shanks, Ideal Standard and Twyford.

A representative can arrange for a no-obligation home visit to offer expert guidance and advice on how to transform your bathroom into a real bathing beauty. Essex Showers offer a comprehensive top-quality service, covering every aspect of installation.

For further advice or to arrange for a free quote, call Malcolm or Lee at Essex Showers on 0800 212350.

TWO media students are waiting to see if they have managed to break the world record for the longest ever radio music show after broadcasting for a staggering 88 hours.

Simon Turp and Alex Holland Martin, both studying at South Essex College in Southend, stayed up for three-and-a-half days chatting and playing songs on the college station Infuse.

They are now are catching up on well-earned sleep after their attempt to beat the existing record of 84 hours, 15 minutes set by Hit 96.7 FM DJs Mithun Ramesh and Sindhu Biju, in Dubai, last year.

A recording of the entire show will be sent to Guinness World Records for experts there to decide whether the record has been broken. The verdict should be delivered by the end of this month.

Alex, 20, of Rayleigh, said the college had been supportive by letting the pair use campus buildings overnight. He said: "Course tutors were great letting us have the lessons off to do the record attempt. An epic thanks must go out to Luke Mason and Michael McKenzie for the running of the station."

As well as massive amounts of tea, coffee, energy drinks and allotted five-minute rest breaks each hour, the thing that spurred them on was raising money in memory of Simon's great grandfather, who passed away in March.

Simon, 17, from Benfleet, explained the money would go to Macmillan Cancer Support. He said: "It's a fantastic cause which supports people affected by cancer, and their families. I think my great grandfather would be proud we are helping others and glad if we manage to break the record. We are both proud and glad if we manage to actually break the record."

THE Ministry of Defence (MoD) is to be consulted over the re-opening of Shoebury East Beach following an assessment of unexploded bombs that forced its closure.

On Tuesday and Wednesday last week (June 3 and 4), a specialist team investigated the ordnances on the beach.

Before the search a spokesman for the MoD said: "The work will involve excavation of metallic items which were identified during a previous geophysical survey as potential ordnance but which may not necessarily indicate the presence of live munitions."

Any of the ordnance found by the MoD were made safe and disposed of by the team.

A spokesman for Southend council said:

MoD meeting over re-opening beach

"Following the work, the MoD's assessment of the risk of any ordnance will be provided to the council, which will use the information to inform its decision on whether and at what stage the beach can be re-opened."

The MoD now plans to meet the council soon to reveal its revised assessment of the level of risk at the site as early as possible.

The council spokesman preparation had begun for a re-opening of the beach.

He said: "In addition, the council is currently considering a number of measures, including reviewing signage in the area, in order to prepare for a future re-opening of the beach. Local people and businesses should be assured that both the MoD and the council continue to prioritise this work in recognition of the importance of East Beach to residents, visitors and businesses."

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELLS

By LIZ WADE

A CLASSIC book, said by many to be one of the greatest early science fiction novels, will be brought vividly to life at The Cramphorn Theatre, Chelmsford, this week.

The Time Machine, by HG Wells, which was first published in 1895, has had an enormous influence on English fiction ever since, particularly science fiction.

In many ways it is the forerunner of all time travel stories, film and television, not only the famous 1960 film adapted of the book, but also Dr Who, Back To The Future and upcoming Tom Cruise film Edge of Tomorrow, amongst many others.

The Time Machine, a new production from Robert Lloyd Parry and Nunkie Theatre, will visit The Cramphorn Theatre in Chelmsford on June 13 - the only Essex date in an extensive UK tour.

This new production, adapted and performed by Robert Lloyd Parry, goes back to the book for its source material and features a full-sized realisation of the machine itself - a giant metronome - designed and built by Factory Settings Ltd who created many of the giant props used in the 2012 Paralympic Opening Ceremony.

Robert Lloyd Parry takes to the stage as the master storyteller during Nunkie's simply staged, atmospheric production.

Perhaps best known for his eerie retellings of the ghost stories of M R James, Lloyd Parry recently played the author in Mark Gatiss' documentary, Ghost Writer, shown on BBC2 on Christmas Day last year.

Set in 1895 in a suburban garden, a man lies dazed beside a remarkable machine and beneath a waning moon. He has a story to tell, an unbelievable story about the future that he insists is true. But is it a joke, a prophecy or a dream?

The machine - the forerunner of Dr Who's Tardis, Marty McFly's DeLorean and Hawkwind's Silver Machine - enables Lloyd

From Dr Who to this?

OCULUS (15, 103 mins)

FRIDAY the 13th of June will be exceedingly unlucky for cinemagoers who hand over hard-earned cash in exchange for ghoulish thrills and spills in Oculus.

Writer-director Mike Flanagan's ham-fisted take on a haunted house creeps with predictability, and jump-out-of-your-seat scares are perilously thin on the ground.

The script unfolds in parallel timelines set 11 years apart and the boundary between fantasy and reality becomes so blurred that it's impossible to make sense of the on-screen madness until the end credits roll.

That said, it's abundantly clear where Flanagan's lumbering picture is headed and which two-dimensional characters must be slain, sparing them and us from swathes of risible dialogue that might convince some viewers they are watching a comedy.

Karen Gillan, who is best known for her time-travelling exploits as Amy Pond alongside Matt Smith in Doctor Who, sports a solid American accent as the film's terrified heroine.

She draws upon a repertoire of wide-eyed stares and pitiful whimpering as her protagonist battles valiantly against the ultimate manifestation of evil: an antique mirror.

Oculus opens with 13-year-old Kaylie (Annalise Basso) and her 10-year-old brother Tim (Garrett Ryan) cowering in a bedroom.

They open the door and see their father Alan (Rory Cochrane) prowling in a homicidal daze, having just shot his wife Marie (Katee Sackhoff).

Sensing an opportunity to escape, the youngsters run for the front door...

In the present-day, 21-year-old Tim (now played by Brenton Thwaites) is released from St Aidan's Mental Facility, having come to terms with his horrific childhood.

"It's important you connect with your sister," Dr Graham (Miguel Sandoval) tells Tim. "It's more important you protect your recovery."

Tim is released into the care of sibling Kaylie (now played by Gillan), who works in an auction house.

She is convinced that a mirror drove their old man to murder and she has acquired the supposedly possessed looking glass with the intention of smashing it to smithereens at their childhood home.

Kaylie intends to document the destruction on video cameras placed around the homestead.

"We were kids! We made up a sick story to hide the fact our father was a killer!" rages Tim, who is reluctant to delve into fractured memories of the past.

Oculus doesn't play fair, creating nightmarish dreams within dreams within dreams that test our resolve.

Pacing is sluggish and from the moment the siblings venture back into the house that brought them anguish, we know one or both of them are certain to leave in a corner's bag.

Gillan and Thwaites don't have sufficient screen time to forge credible on-screen chemistry so it's hard to invest our emotions in their survival.

A blood-soaked finale intentionally leaves the door ajar for a sequel, which should never see the light of day.

Parry's inventor to travel deep into the future where he discovers the sinister change that have been wrought by the intervening millennia on human civilisation.

As well as the show itself there is also a free pre show talk by scientist and broadcaster, Ben Valsler, about the impact science has had on comics, and vice versa, looking at the likes of Spider Man and X-Men.

Barking, on June 14.

With three million selling hit singles including 'You To Me Are Everything', 'Can't Get By Without You' and 'Can You Feel The Force', plus further top ten success with 'You'll Never Know What You're Missing' and 'Whenever You Want My Love', the band's brand of commercial sweet soul music, mixed with disco influences, established The Real Thing as the UK's best loved soul band.

With the band's origins in the Merseybeat boom of the 1960s, lead singer Eddie formed The Real Thing with brother Chris, as well as Ray Lake and Dave Smith, who were then spotted by an ex-Radio Luxembourg DJ, Tony Hall, and signed to Pye Records in 1975.

The Real Thing, who regularly perform at The Rewind the 80's and the Here and Now festivals alongside such artists as Rick Astley, Boy George, Belinda Carlisle, Kool and the Gang and Chic, had their first hit in 1976 when 'You To Me Are Everything', written and produced by Ken Gold and Mick Denne, sailed to the top of the UK singles chart.

The band went on to have a further nine hits over a three year period, including the likes of 'Can't Get By Without You' and 'Can You Feel The Force', which became huge remixed hits again in 1986, along with 'You To Me Are Everything'.

In more recent times they recorded a cover of The Beatles' classic, Eleanor Rigby, which featured on the chart album 'Liverpool, The Number Ones' and have released 'The Singles Collection' a 35-track double album.

Their appearance at Broadway Theatre, Barking, will include all their hits plus well known soul and funk classics from the likes of Kool and the Gang and Chic.

For further details about The Real Thing call Broadway Theatre Box Office on 020 8507 5607 or visit www.thebroadwaybarking.com

Plane sailing on the wing

EXPERIENCE the sights, sounds and smells of one of the most famous jet aircrafts ever built during three special open days this year.

The Vulcan bomber, which has for years been painstakingly looked after and restored by a group of volunteers, will be welcoming visitors this weekend at London Southend Airport as part of a series of open days that raise money for the upkeep of the aircraft.

Registered charity, The Vulcan Restoration Trust, owns and maintain the ex-Royal Air Force bomber in full ground working condition to preserve part of Britain's aviation heritage and pay tribute to the men and women who flew and maintained the Vulcan during the Cold War.

Alongside this, the trust also aims to educate the general public about the Vulcan and the important role it played in shaping Britain's military history in the post-World War 2 era.

This year's first open day in April attracted more than 500 people and raised more £2,000, which will go towards paying for vital engineering work that is needed.

This Sunday's event, on Father's Day, will be raising further funds and awareness, by giving visitors the opportunity to meet the team who keep the aircraft in running condition, and walk around the massive aircraft.

The event, which is just £3 to visit for adults and free for accompanied children under 16, is a great opportunity to get up close to the Vulcan, and for just an extra charge of £2.50 – for adults and children – you can climb into the cockpit and see where the pilots, navigators and air electronics officer would have worked.

You will have to climb a ladder to get into the cockpit, but it is worth it to get a feel of what it would have been like to be behind the controls of the huge aircraft when it protected the country.

While the aircraft can no longer

RESTORED: The Vulcan bomber

take to the skies, its engines are kept in operating condition and it is capable of being taxied on the runway.

While the aircraft will not be doing any taxiing on the runway during the event its aircraft systems are powered-up at some point giving you the chance to experience the sounds of the Vulcan.

For an extra special experience ask one of the team when you visit as there is a chance to be inside the Vulcan's cockpit during one of these power-ups.

If you want to help them raise even more money you can pick up a unique souvenir while you are there or ask about becoming a member of the Vulcan Restoration Trust.

Gates to the event on Sunday, June 15, open at 10am with last admissions at 4pm, but don't worry if you can't make it as other open days will be held on Sunday, August 24, and Sunday, September 21, so don't forget to put the dates in your diary.

Traditional pub has it all

Advertisement feature

A TRADITIONAL pub and restaurant has it all, from the very best in English cuisine with a hint of Mediterranean and Asian influences to an excellent selection of ales, lagers and wine. The Bell & Chimes Restaurant, on Rettendon Common, boasts a warm, relaxed atmosphere making it the ideal venue for everyone from those looking for fine dining to others searching for a quality pub meal.

It is also the perfect setting for a range of special occasions including Father's Day on Sunday, June 15, and anyone interested in making a reservation is urged to book early to avoid disappointment.

Throughout the year you can enjoy a drink and a bite to eat in The Bell's comfortable bar - open all day, every day - or a delicious meal in its 50-seater Chimes Restaurant, which is open every evening and for Sunday lunch. Its Mid-Week Menu, offering a choice of two-courses for £10.95 or three-courses for just £11.95, is packed with a wide range of choices, from whitebait and Italian pasta to smoked mackerel and soup of the day to start, followed by a fantastic range of main dishes such as home made pie of the day, home cooked ham with eggs, pan fried liver and bacon, baked seafood and home made lasagne. If you have room for more then there are a range of delicious sweets to enjoy from the trolley.

An a la carte menu is served in the restaurant on Saturday evenings which also has extensive choice including venison pate, Scottish smoked salmon, garlic mushrooms, and rosemary and garlic brie for starters, and succulent roast, pork tenderloin, lamb shank, chicken Portobello - succulent chicken breast smothered with Madeira and mushroom sauce - as well as grill and fish dishes for mains. All of this is complimented by a wide range of side orders and desserts including sweets from the trolley. More choice is available on Sunday as they serve a snack menu in the bar area and a comprehensive blackboard which always includes a choice of four roasts, their famous home made pie of the day and fresh fish, and other dishes. Its Sunday Lunch Menu costs £8.95 for a main meal, £10.75 for two-courses and £12.25 for three-courses. There is also a comprehensive Bar Menu offering a range of favourites from prawn cocktail, potato wedges and rack of ribs, to burger meals, scampi and ploughman's.

The Chimes Restaurant itself can also be hired for private functions, whether you want to enjoy a sit down meal for up to 50 people, or a buffet style celebration for up to 100. During the summer you can enjoy al fresco dining at the front of the premises, and every Thursday evening from 9pm there is a Quiz Night in the bar area. With so much to offer, including free WiFi, it is clear why so many people make The Bell & Chimes their first choice, whether they are looking for a quick lunch, a bite to eat after work, the perfect location for a social gathering or celebration, or the venue for a business lunch. For further information, or to make a reservation, call The Bell & Chimes Restaurant on 01245 400616 or visit www.belland-chimesrettendon.co.uk

Eat as much as you like at the Tandoori Parlour

TANDOORI Parlour has a superb new offer for 2014 – 'eat as much as you like' from the a la carte menu, freshly cooked and served to your table.

This offer is available from Sunday to Thursday for just £12.95 per person.

The restaurant's five star cuisine can also be enjoyed in the comfort of your own home thanks to its new takeaway service.

The popular restaurant, which has been serving delicious food to the community since the mid 1970s, has gone one step further by offering even more to its customers.

With a specially heated vehicle it is now delivering its vast menu to homes throughout the local area, all with the guarantee of arriving piping hot.

The service, free for orders of over £10, can also deliver alcoholic drinks for you to enjoy alongside your mouth-watering, freshly prepared food.

The service is just one of the ways Tandoori Parlour, at 61-63 Hart Road, Thundersley, goes out of its way for customers. As well as offering free VIP cards with 'two for one' deals and money off buffet evenings, the restaurant also helps diners celebrate special occasions.

Its Sunday Lunchtime Buffet, offering a choice of 52 dishes as well as a platter of starters silver served to your table is a great way to enjoy a meal with the family as it costs just £7.95 per person and is free for children aged 10 and under.

Tandoori Parlour, which is the largest Indian restaurant in Essex with a capacity for 450 people and was one of the first Indian restaurants to win the Tiffin Cup in 2005, is regularly featured in the Good Curry Guide.

It boasts a downstairs dining area with bar and dance floor as well as a Crystal Room upstairs, complete with illuminated glass dance floor, laser light show, baby grand piano, and state-of-the-art sound and lighting.

Diners can enjoy a wide range of Indian and Nepalese cuisine at its extensive evening buffets, which cost just £11.95 per person from Sunday to Wednesday, and £12.95 on Thursday, when there is Karaoke Disco night each week.

Its popular Banquet and Disco nights are held on Friday and Saturday offering silver served starters, extensive buffet as well as a disco with DJ entertainment. Both evenings cost £16.95 per person, or just £14 on Friday night for VIP card holders.

Tandoori Parlour, which has helped raise thousands of pounds over the years for a range of charities including Barnardo's, the British Red Cross and Essex Air Ambulance, can also host Charity Nights, where 50 per cent of the profits go to the charity of your choice.

Tandoori Parlour, which is fully air conditioned and licensed, has full disabled facilities and a free large car park opposite.

The restaurant is open from noon to 2.30pm and 5.30pm to midnight from Monday to Saturday (last admission 10.30pm), and from noon to midnight (last admission 10.30pm) on Sunday.

For further information or to make a reservation call Tandoori Parlour on 01268 793786 or 01268 793877, or visit www.tandooriparlour.com

ASK THE AGENT ALAN KIRKMAN

Alan Kirkman is a Director of both Tudor Estates in Southend and Essex TEAM part of a network of independently owned estate agents who share their instructions for the benefit of giving their client properties maximum market exposure. Alan has been an estate agent for over 32 years.

Q. Does honour have any place in the property business, or is it all about greed?

A. Good question! Sometimes, I think not - but then I come across people whose word is their bond, and who would never renege on a deal.

The thing is, honour - in the sense of sticking to your word - is a two way street. You can't expect a seller to honour a deal if a buyer isn't completely straightforward.

So, for example, my advice to buyers is: don't make silly offers and don't mess around.

What is 'messaging around'? Well, things like telling the agent you are a cash buyer with nothing to sell - then, two weeks into the deal, letting it slip that you actually have a property on the market and you don't yet have a buyer. Behaviour like this does not endear you to either the seller or their agent!

As for sellers, 'messaging around' can mean putting your property on the market and then - after a buyer is found - suddenly announcing that you're not ready to proceed because you haven't found another property to buy.

In such a scenario, what does the buyer do? On the whole, they keep looking - with the result that when you are finally ready to proceed, they've found something else.

So, to sellers I say: when you have a buyer, put the sale in hand with your solicitors immediately. It shows good faith.

As for gazumping....if you agree a price, stick to it and give the buyer time to get the deal finalised. Keeping your property actively on the market, when you already have a buyer proceeding, is not good practice. Besides, the new consumer protection regs now require you to tell the buyer - in which case they are quite likely to withdraw their offer and leave you back at square one.

Ditto gazundering: as a buyer, once you have agreed a price, don't drop your offer at the last minute unless serious problems are uncovered.

None of these things, I would stress, are illegal. But they are most definitely not cricket.

Ultimately, the important thing to remember about property sales is this: always try to do as you would be done by. Be nice, be sensible and keep a sense of proportion - and buying and selling property could be a lot less stressful for everyone!

MITSUBISHI calls its Outlander PHEV plug-in hybrid a game-changer and this is no idle boast.

The model, now entering showrooms, rewrites the rules on Sports Utility Vehicles (SUVs) with a raft of benefits that will appeal to business and private users alike.

It offers electric drive on both axles – so maintaining four-wheel drive application – driven from a large battery under the floor with a 2.0-litre petrol engine to cut in when needed. It can travel up to 32.5 miles in electric-only mode and, significantly, can comfortably travel at the national speed limit without the petrol engine cutting in.

PHEV is of massive benefit to those who commute under 32 miles because it can achieve some amazing mpg figures, such as its combined readout of 148mpg. This, however, has to be taken in perspective because on a long trip the benefit of electric drive is diminished and the vehicle will return figures comparable with an equivalent diesel.

I have always been uneasy about the range of electric-only vehicles but have become a fan of range extenders with auxiliary petrol engines. The PHEV (Plug-in Hybrid Electric Vehicle) takes the theme much further – with the electric drive being a more significant part of the experience. And of course, during the drive, regenerative braking provides a power source for the battery. It is also stunningly quiet.

There are no compromises with this vehicle. It is like having your cake and eating it.

It stands as the most practical set of wheels yet to qualify for the Government's £5,000 plug-in car grant, having five seats, 4WD capability and a large boot. And there is no added cost for the hybrid model with the entry-level car at £28,249.

Phew! Meet PHEV: the 148mpg SUV

Its carbon emissions are just 44 g/km which means no vehicle excise duty.

And, for the business driver, the benefit in kind (BIK) rate is five per cent, a big hit in the world of commerce. It makes it very significant addition to the business market because a driver who pays tax at the 40 per cent rate will pay £655 less per year than some of the smallest cars on the market, and a significant amount less than SUVs of equivalent size. It is also exempt from London congestion charges.

To me, the crowning glory of this vehicle is the fact that has a cruising range of 512 miles. You do need a plug-in point at home to charge it and it can easily be optimised to draw electricity at cheaper times for those on variable tariffs. Mitsubishi estimate the cost of a charge is between £1 and £1.50.

The controls of the PHEV let the driver to save battery power if he or she so wishes and it is possible to charge the car from the engine when in petrol mode.

You can even have a phone app on some versions allowing the owner to regulate the temperature and charging schedules from a phone. Charging points are available free from British Gas subject to eligibility.

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.
That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD).
A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or services of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', 'IT' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;

(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or

(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reason the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republishing or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 1.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers' control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers must not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps, payment of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on 11TH June 2014 Southend-on-Sea Borough Council made the above Order under powers contained conferred by sections 1, 2, 4, 32, 35, 45, 46, 47, 49 and 53 and Part IV of Schedule 9 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, as amended and part 6 of the Traffic Management Act 2004 and of all other enabling powers, and after consultation with the Chief Officer of Police in accordance with Part III of Schedule 9 to the Act.

The effect of the Order will be as follows:

To Revoke The Southend-on-Sea Borough Council (Hospital Area Parking Management Scheme) (Parking Places) Order 2011 and The Southend-on-Sea Borough Council (Hospital Area) (Waiting and Loading Restrictions) Order 2011 and all subsequent Amendment Orders made to these two Orders and immediately re-enact those provisions contained in those Orders under the above Consolidation Order without change except for some minor amendments to the wording of the Order.

The above Order does not make any changes to the existing Parking Places and Waiting and Loading Restriction Orders and their amendments or introduce new restrictions.

The Order will come into effect from 11th June 2014.

A copy of the Sealed Order and any relevant documents may be inspected at the Contact Centre on the ground floor of the Civic Centre (address below) during normal office hours.

If you wish to question the validity of the Order, or of any provision contained therein, on the grounds that it is not within the powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, or on the grounds that its requirement of that Act, or of any instrument made under it, has not been complied with in relation to the Order, you may within six weeks apply to the High Court for this purpose.

  12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
  13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
    - (1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
    - (2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
  14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
  15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
  16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
  17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
  18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.
- Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.
Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.
- Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.
- Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.
Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.
Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

LICENSING ACT 2003
Notice of Application for Premises Licence
I JIMMICHEN JOSE KALAPPUKACKAL hereby make application for a Premises Licence in respect of Eastwood News, 414 Rayleigh Road, Eastwood, Leigh on sea, Essex SS9 5PT. The relevant licensable activities which it is proposed will be carried on are: The sale of alcohol for consumption off the premises between 05.00 to 23.00 Monday to Sunday. Interested parties and responsible authorities may make representations to the Licensing Authority (Southend-on-Sea Borough Council). All such representations shall be made in writing, by the 3rd July 2014. Representations should be sent to the Licensing Authority, Southend on sea Borough Council, Civic Centre, (Floor 13) Victoria Avenue, Southend on sea, Essex SS2 6GZ. ## EAGLES SOAR TO TRIUMPH AT OVAL

County FA goes out on the road

ATTENDEES at the first free Essex County FA 'Community Road Show' on Wednesday July 2 will be able to examine the FA Community Shield silverware at close proximity when it drops in to Essex Record Office in Chelmsford, joined by former Premier League and Republic of Ireland footballer, Matt Holland.

The event will be hosted by Kirsty Clarke, Chair of the new Essex County FA Inclusion Advisory Group and the Ipswich Town midfielder between 7:15pm and 9:00pm. Information will be shared to display ways of taking part in the game through coaching, refereeing, setting-up a club and getting involved in the decision-making processes at the County FA, increasing the representation of people from ethnic backgrounds.

There will be additional details about development programmes such as FA Tesco Skills and Vauxhall Mash-Ups, plus local Soccability club Healthy4Life will be amongst the contributors. Road Shows have previously proved to be an excellent forum environment to engage the wider community by sharing awareness of national and local initiatives on inclusion. They are a means of gathering intelligence to help construct county plans from season to season.

Essex County FA Inclusion Officer, Mark Healy, is looking forward to a productive evening: "The purpose of the event will be to share our developments in making the game more inclusive and accessible to people from underrepresented groups. This allows us to network with the 'football family', including those within and outside the football structures."

"One key element is asking those attending a set of questions which will provide us with an insight into the perceptions and key priorities for grass roots football. This feedback will then help shape key working areas for the next county development plan. We've got the Community Shield coming along as well, which should be an additional draw to the event!"

Baseball

Surrey v Essex Eagles
(Essex won by 5 wickets)
Brian Jeeves reporting from the Kia Oval

IN form Essex Eagles continued their decent NatWest T20 Blast campaign at the Kia Oval against a star-studded Surrey outfit.

Essex welcomed Ravi Bopara and Ryan ten Doeschate back into the side while the big news coming out of Surrey was the inclusion of Kevin Pietersen. The former England man will always spark debate amongst enthusiasts of the game.

Nevertheless, on his day the irrepressible Pietersen should still be regarded as one of the greatest talents to have represented England in the modern era.

A crowd of around 20,000 had congregated on what was a glorious evening in the capital. Essex won the toss and elected to field. Surrey showed early intentions as Jason Roy hit a boundary with just the second ball off Phillips then smashed a huge six just an over later, this time Matt Salisbury was the bowler to suffer.

Essex made the breakthrough when Hashim Amla was spectacularly caught by Ben Foakes for 9 off the bowling of Tymal Mills with Surrey moving along steadily on 35. But Roy was looking in good nick, and together with Pietersen as allies at the crease, Surrey moved past 50 in the seventh over. But the home crowd were soon in for a jolt as Pietersen went, snared at long on by ten Doeschate for just 5. This after somewhat recklessly taking on the bowling of Bopara.

Roy continued to sparkle. He brought up his half century, hitting ten Doeschate through the covers for another boundary. But just moments later he was heading back to the pavilion on 57 having taken on one shot too many. Bopara once again benefiting from ten Doeschate's safe hands. Steven Davies followed soon after for a duck, this time it was Bopara in the field and Salisbury the bowler benefiting. Surrey were now stuttering on 111-4.

Surrey moved on before Gary Wilson's excellent knock of 45 was brought to an end by Reece Topley off Salisbury, then O'Brien was removed in quick succession when he found James Foster's gloves without troubling the scoreboard with Topley the bowler.

Azhar Mahmood (17*) and Robin Peterson (6*) carried the Surrey innings to its conclusion, finishing on 151-6 at a rate of just over 7.5 an over. Bopara the pick of the Essex attack with 2-24 off his 4 overs.

Essex opening pairing of Mark Pettini and Jesse Ryder made instant inroads into the Surrey total, this included a huge six from the latter off a loose delivery from Jade Dernbach. But Surrey made the breakthrough when Kevin O'Brien bowled Ryder for 31 with Essex on 37. The Eagles were in no mood for hanging around, Tom Westley guided the visitors past 50 up within 5 overs.

This was now regarded as Essex' match to lose. But when O'Brien ran out Pettini for 12, a sobering hush descended amidst the huge travelling Essex faithful.

Westley and Bopara moved Essex towards their target with some precise strokes before Bopara departed the scene thanks to a juggling catch from O'Brien, the England man had scored 15, with Essex now on 77-3.

Westley and ten Doeschate got Essex moving again before Westley lost his off stump to Mahmood for 44, but the damage had been done. Despite Foakes being run out by Davies for 5, a breezy knock of 43 by Dutchman ten Doeschate carried Essex toward their target. Foster put the hosts out of their misery, hitting a boundary facing his first ball, as Essex finished on 155-5, winning by 5 wickets with 7 balls to spare.

Surrey: H.M. Amla, J.J. Roy, K.P. Pietersen, S.M. Davies, G.C. Wilson, K.J. O'Brien, Azhar Mahmood, R.J. Peterson, Z.S. Ansari, G.J. Batty, J.W. Dernbach.

Essex Eagles: M.L. Pettini, J.D. Ryder, T. Westley, R.S. Bopara, R.N. ten Doeschate, B.T. Foakes, J.S. Foster, T.J. Phillips, M.E.T. Salisbury, R.J.W. Topley, T.S. Mills.

Disappointment for AmDTuning.com in BTCC battle

Motorsport

THE AmDTuning.com team came away disappointed from the latest rounds of the Dunlop MSA British Touring Car Championship after a heavy on-track accident led to it being forced to curtail its weekend early at Oulton Park.

The West Thurrock-based team made the trip north to Cheshire in confident mood, with hopes high of pushing towards the podium places given the strong race pace shown by its Ford Focus in recent events.

Driver Dave Newsham had qualified on the second row of the grid at Oulton Park last season, and his weekend started well with a solid showing in two wet free practice sessions on Saturday ahead of the all-important qualifying session.

Aiming to put himself firmly in the mix ahead of race one, Dave had to settle for 16th on the grid having been one of a number of drivers who missed out on the chance to improve in the closing moments of the session when Jack Clarke put his car into the barriers to bring out the red flags.

Improved weather conditions greeted the teams for the first race around the full Oulton Park layout, with Dave slipping back a place over the course of the opening lap.

With overtaking proving to be a huge challenge, Dave would remain in the same position through to the finish having been part of a huge train of cars dicing for eighth place.

A strong start to race two saw Dave move up to 16th and he soon managed to battle his way into the points to sit 13th ahead of the Honda of defending champion Andrew Jordan.

Having run side-by-side with Jordan across the line starting lap eight, Dave was forced wide going through Old Hall as Jack Goff tried to follow Jordan through, with the Ford running across the grass before re-joining on the run down the Avenue.

Unfortunately, a clash with Goff as the pair raced towards Dentons saw Dave go off onto the grass and with no grip because of the rain the previous day, he was powerless to prevent the Focus making heavy contact with the barriers.

With the car returned to the pits after the race, it soon became clear that damage to the front subframe was too severe to be repaired in the time available ahead of race three, leading to the team being forced to withdraw from the remainder of race day.

"I'm so disappointed as we'd been really confident coming here," Dave said.

"We lost out a bit in qualifying because of the red flag and then in the opening race, we were just as quick as the cars ahead but it was like racing in the Monaco Grand Prix; there was just no chance to find a way past the guys in front."

"The tyre pressures had been a bit soft in race one so we tweaked them for race two and the car felt a lot better. I managed to make up some places and was having a good battle with Andrew and Jack when the incident happened.

"It was one of those times where I think Jack might have thought he was clear of me as he came across and I was recovering and we touched. I know it wasn't a dirty move as Jack isn't that kind of driver and I've always enjoyed racing alongside him, but when I got on the grass, there was no chance of me stopping the car."

"Even though a divot took some of the speed off, it was a heavy hit into the barriers and not the way I wanted the weekend to come to an end."

Team boss Shaun Hollamby shared in the disappointment but vowed that the team would fight back in the fifth meeting of the campaign later this month.

"The red flag in qualifying meant we were a few places further back on the grid that we hoped to be, and it was a tough race day," he said.

"The car will be as good as new in time for Croft, so we'll put this weekend behind us and focus on what is to come."

Shield to honour legend Denness

Cricket

ESSEX County Cricket Club and Kent Cricket have announced the launch of the new 'Mike Denness Challenge Shield', named in honour of former cricketer Mike Denness, to be contested in all cricket matches between the two counties.

"Mike was an outstanding cricketer for Kent, Essex and England and had the rare distinction of captaining neighbouring counties", commented current Kent Cricket President and former team mate Graham Johnson.

"He holds a special place in the memories of both counties and is greatly missed. We thought it wholly appropriate to honour his memory in this manner."

With a record of over 500 First Class and 200 List A games, Mike Denness' achievements are well known. He was a key part of a dominant Kent side in the early and mid-seventies which won numerous limited over trophies and the

MISSED: Mike Denness

County Championship on a number of occasions. In the final four years of his playing career at Essex, he continued to be successful and was a key figure in their 1979 County Championship win.

The 'Mike Denness Challenge Shield' will be contested in all matches, across all formats played between the Counties during the season. Two points will be attributed to LV= County Championship wins, one point each for limited overs match victories, with the county with the most points at the end of the season having the honour of their name on the shield.

Dear Parent or Carer

We know just how important it is for you to choose the right secondary school for your child in order for them to thrive, learn, succeed and achieve their goals.

All children have different ways of learning. Some children excel in music, others have a natural aptitude for mathematics, some are good at sport, many are secure 'all-rounders', a few find academic learning challenging and some thrive on a practically based vocational curriculum. Most important of all, is that all children and young people deserve a good education both for their own sake and to enable them to gain qualifications to help them secure a positive future.

When it comes to making that all-important decision about secondary education, the challenge is to find the right school. This means one that meets your child's academic, social and emotional needs, where they will be happy, safe, secure and ready to learn.

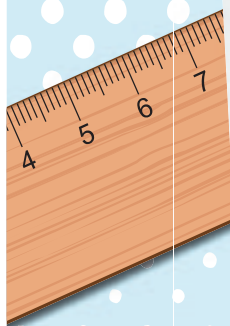

To help you make an informed choice, we are delighted that all twelve state funded secondary schools have joined us to provide you with timely information about their school, what is special about their school, and most importantly, the date and time of their prospective Year 7 information events. This leaflet does not replace the comprehensive information about admissions arrangements which will be sent to you in July 2014.

We wish you all the very best with making this important decision and join with you in wishing your children the best of luck as they near the end of their time in primary school.

What do I need to know as a Year 5 parent/carer? >>>>

We know that parents/carers have lots of questions about their options for a secondary school for their child so we've listed below some of the ones that are asked most often.

How do I find out more about the secondary schools in Southend-on-Sea?

One of the best ways to find out more about which will be the best school for your child is to visit them. All their open days/evenings are listed in this guide but if you cannot make one of the open days please contact the school and arrange an alternative day/time to visit.

Also, in the first week of July, all Year 5 parents will receive an information booklet from the Council providing more detail about each school and the application process. This will also be available electronically from 1st July on www.southend.gov.uk/admissions.

When can I apply for my child's secondary school and if I apply early will I be more likely to get my 'first' choice?

The online secondary school application form (for the parents/carers of all pupils living in Southend who are due to start in Year 7 in September 2015) will be on www.southend.gov.uk/admissions from 1st September 2014 and the closing date is 31st October 2014. Paper application forms will also be available. School places are NOT offered on a 'first come first served' basis, but are considered in line with the admission criteria for each school. However, if you apply after 31st October 2014 then you may be disadvantaged.

Can my child attend any school?

Every school has their own set of admission criteria. This may depend on, for example, where you live, whether your child has a brother/sister at the school, whether they excel in a particular field, for example, Performing Arts or whether the school has an entrance test. This information is listed in the information booklet you will receive in July.

If I want my child to take the 11+ test how do I do this?

Your child's primary school will be able to advise you about the 11+ test and will provide you with relevant information about the entry process. Children take the test in the September of Year 6 and parents/carers receive the results before the end of the application period so that all parents/carers can make an informed choice for their child. More information can be found from The Consortium of Selective Schools in Essex (who run the 11+ test) on www.csse.org.uk

Do I have to pay to go to any of the Southend schools featured in this guide?

No; all school places for these schools are free. Examples of the costs that parents would need to cover are uniform and trips.

Can my child still have free school meals at secondary school?

Yes! It is really easy to apply either in person at the school or using our online service at www.southend.gov.uk/fsm. If you are eligible for free school meals you will save between £10 and £15 per week. Every pupil who registers for free school meals will earn the school additional government funding which the schools then use to enhance the education for children at that school. It is important for as many parents/carers as possible to register for free school meals (if they are eligible), even if their child does not always take up the free meal offered.

Will the Council pay the transport costs of getting my child to school?

Parents are responsible for ensuring their child gets to school and the majority walk, cycle or use public transport. Please take into account the location of the school when making your choices. In a few cases transport may be provided using specific criteria on distance and/or specific benefits. Full details can be found at www.southend.gov.uk/etc

What if my child has a statement of special educational need?

Parents will receive information from the special educational needs team in September 2014 regarding the secondary school application process and do not need to complete the standard application form.

When and how will I find out my child has a secondary school place?

Parents/carers will be informed on 2nd March 2015 via email or first class post (depending on whether the application was made online or on paper) of the school place that their child is being offered.

Where can I find out about school uniform?

All of the schools have uniform suppliers listed on their website. If you do not have internet access then please contact the school directly who will be able to give you more information.

How do I contact the team who are responsible for school admissions at the Council?

The School Admissions Team on 01702 215007 will be able to answer your enquiries. You can contact the team by email at admissions@southend.gov.uk or by writing to: The School Admissions Team, Southend-on-Sea Borough Council, Department for People, Civic Centre, Victoria Avenue, Southend-on-Sea, SS2 6ER

A comprehensive information booklet explaining everything about applying for a secondary school place will be given to all Year 5 children in the first week of July 2014.
